

Commercial Law World

The official publication of the Commercial Law League of America

April/May/June/July 2014

Volume 29 • Issue 2

Planning For A Time of Trouble: Cabrera v. Collazo

How unexpected tragedies can derail a case

Bankruptcy Fundamentals
Preferences and Defenses

CLLA

COMMERCIAL LAW LEAGUE OF AMERICA
EXPERTISE • INSIGHT • RESULTS

Plus the latest collection and bankruptcy legislation news, issues to watch out for when delegating case-related tasks — and more!

Contents

April/May/June/July 2014
Volume 29 • Issue 2

Features

9 A Letter from CLLA President Barry Gammons

This message from new CLLA President Barry Gammons was sent to members in mid-May. Due to its importance, we are reprinting it in this issue of Commercial Law World.

12 Planning For A Time of Trouble: Cabrera v. Collazo, A Case In Point

Even the best case preparation often doesn't allow for sudden tragedies.
By Judith K. Fitzgerald — U.S. Bankruptcy Judge (Ret.); Professor of Law, Indiana Tech Law School; Of Counsel, Tucker Arensberg, P.C.

16 Bankruptcy Fundamentals: Preferences and Defenses

Get the 411 on handling potential bankruptcy case preference issues.
By Judge Harlin DeWayne Hale and Andrew G. Edson

Industry Information

6 Legal News Round-Up

Find out the latest legislative news from Washington.

24 Ethics and Professionalism

In this issue's ethics column, Robert Bernstein discusses issues that can arise when attorneys delegate tasks.

25 Tales From The Front

Our faithful columnist finds that sometimes, the facts in a case don't tell the entire story.

League Views:

2 The President's Page

In his last President's Page column, former CLLA President Jeff Schatzman reflects on his time in office.

26 Viewpoint

It's been a progressive year for the CLLA.

28 CLLA Flashback

CLLA has a member magazine for decades — and it can help members achieve new career heights.

Member News:

21 Member News

The latest news from CLLA members around the globe.

23 Newly Admitted Members

Find out who joined the CLLA in February, March, April and May.