

Commercial Law World

The official publication of the Commercial Law League of America

November/December 2011

Volume 30 • Issue 5

Making Settlements Pay

How to mitigate the risk of a default

The Playmate, The Fortune And The Bankruptcy Court Battle

Find out how the groundbreaking Stern v. Marshall Supreme Court opinion could affect the legal industry

Also: Legislative updates on the provision to let collectors call taxpayers with auto-dialing and voicemail; Reed v. Arlington — and more!

Contents

Industry Information

4 Legal News Round-Up

Find out the latest legislative news from Washington!

23 Tales From The Front

Timothy Wan offers another insider look at the courtroom!

League Views:

3 The President's Page

CLLA President Beau Hays discusses today's economy and its impact on our industry — and our League goals.

27 Viewpoint

Executive Vice President Oliver Yandle offers members a sneak peek at our upcoming online education program!

28 CLLA Flashback

An 1896 Commercial Law League of America Annual Meeting Ribbon from the 2nd Annual Convention represents a treasured piece of CLLA history.

Member News:

6 Regional/Section Round-up

The CLLA's various sections and regions weigh in with recent news!

24 Newly Admitted Members

Find out who joined the CLLA in September and October.

25 Member News

The latest news from CLLA members around the globe.

Features

8 Settlement Punchlist

Mandatory terms to mitigate the adverse consequences of a default.

By David Cook, Cook Collection Attorneys, PLC

13 Nine Ways to Defend A Preference Action Without Really Trying — And One More

Find out how to respond when a trustee embarks on a collection effort.

By Steven F. Werth

17 The Playmate, The Fortune And The Bankruptcy Court Battle

Find out how the groundbreaking Stern v. Marshall Supreme Court opinion could affect the legal industry.

By Louis S. Robin, the Law Offices of Louis S. Robin, and Lawrence C. Brown, the Law Office of Lawrence C. Brown

21 Why Every Young Lawyer Should Strive For Board Certification

Distinguish yourself in the industry by becoming a board-certified attorney.

By Kirk B. Burkley, American Board of Certification Board of Directors member