

Handling International Claims: From an Agency to an Attorney

Handling International Claims Pre-Litigation

Litigating Foreign Money Claims

- Who's Currency Do You Use?
 - Federal Law
 - Case Law
 - Statutory Law
 - State Law
 - Case Law
 - Statutory Law
 - Uniform Foreign-Money Claims Act ("UFMCA")
 - Conflicts of Law
- What is the Conversion Date?
 - Breach Date
 - Judgment Date
 - Payment Date
 - UFMCA
 - Conflicts of Law

Recognizing and Enforcing Foreign Judgments

- Federal Law
- State Law
 - Common Law
 - Statutory
 - Uniform Foreign Money-Judgments Recognition Act ("UFMJRA")
 - Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act ("UFCMJRA")

Recognizing Foreign Arbitration Awards

- Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards (“New York Convention”)
- Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.
- Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1602 et seq
- International Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes Between States and Nationals of Other States (“ICSID Convention”)