Commercial Law League of America Announces Premier Certification Renewal Agreement with the IACC

Rolling Meadows, IL, July 29, 2019 – The Commercial Law League of America (CLLA) is pleased to announce their renewed agreement with the International Association of Commercial Collectors (IACC) to jointly continue providing certification for the CLLA Commercial Collection Agency Certification Program.

Since 1975, CLLA has been certifying commercial collection agencies while the IACC has been an educational resource to the industry for 50 years. The CLLA/IACC certification is an additional voluntary process that requires agencies to earn the right to be recognized as industry experts.

CLLA certified agencies complete a rigorous application screening as a measure of excellence to the credit community. CLLA certification has been the proven premier industry certification program for over 40 years. A CLLA certified agency offers strength, knowledge and trust to creditors.

The CLLA is ecstatic to officially extend the Strategic Alliance with the International Association of Commercial Collectors (IACC)! This will continue our mutually synergistic relationship, supporting the traditional Triadic System, while also bringing value to both our membership groups. This is particularly important, because the IACC endorses the forty-five-year-old CLLA Commercial Collection Agency Certification.

Tim Wan
President, Commercial Law League of America

The IACC has and continues to certify individual collectors who continue to meet the rigorous certification requirements of the IACC.

I am pleased with the renewal of the agreement with the CLLA to provide certification to IACC member agencies. The CLLA has been certifying commercial collection agencies since 1975 and their certification seal has been well recognized by commercial credit grantors for many years.

Tony Terry
President, International Association of Commercial Collectors, Inc.

CLLA Certified Agencies are independently audited by a third-party to confirm compliance with all relevant federal and state laws and regulations governing the collection of debts and in all jurisdictional registration and licensing requirements.

CLLA certified collection agencies assure trust continues in the practice of commercial collection. The CLLA/IACC affiliation works to create a strong level of confidence and peace of mind for credit professionals.
